TO CURB VANITY HE
GIVES UP HONORSHigh School Student Forsakes Worldly Interests to Devote Life to God.

CHICAGO, Dec. 20.—Because of the decision of Albert Graves, president of the senior class of the Waukegan High School, to give "himself to God," a new class president will be elected, capable of "enjoying pomp and prominence which has no particular relation to godliness."

In an eloquent address to the class at the high school the Graves boy, who is seventeen, explained he has made all arrangements to enter a theological seminary, and in view of his decision to devote his life to God, he had decided to forsake such worldly interests as absorb a youth who properly attends to a class presidency.

"I must thank you heartily for the honor you have done me," he said, "but I cannot be swayed from my decision to give up this honor and to give up the somewhat vain circumstance which surrounds a class leader. Briefly, I have given myself to God and in view of that I must practice humility."

"When I was named as president of the class my vanity was pleased, but it is hardly becoming in a boy who is to devote his life to soul-saving to cater to his vanity."

"Rather had I better begin thus early to confine myself to the ranks of those who seek to do good, for it is in the ranks example and convincing appeal may be made in the extending of God's fold."
